

TECHFAIR

LOS ANGELES

The Biggest Job TechFair in Los Angeles

Please join Comparably, CEO Jason Nazar, The Annenberg Foundation, and the Office of Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti to welcome back the City's largest Technology Job Fair taking place on Thursday, March 8th from 10-8pm at The Reef in Downtown Los Angeles. The Fair will feature 250+ of LA's premier technology companies looking to hire great candidates in engineering, marketing, sales, product, and more.

TechFair LA will feature a variety of expert speakers, a full day of breakout sessions, Hack-a-thon, Pitch day, keynotes from the Mayor of Los Angeles as well as high profile CEOs and figures in the LA tech community. Visit company booths and make live connections in-person with folks looking to hire great talent like you! Throughout the day, attend breakout sessions which will cover a variety of topics on skills, negotiating, and much more that will enrich your professional career. A Hack-a-thon, filled with today's top talent, and a Pitch day judged by today's Top Partners and VCs. We'll also have food trucks, music, and prizes! Don't miss your opportunity!
